

Thomas Mayer, lic. iur.

Attorney-at-Law and notary public, Partner
 Specialist lawyer SAV (Swiss Bar Association)

employment law

Admission to the bar 2001

thomas.mayer@schochauer.ch

Education and training

- 1997 Degree in law at the University of Zurich
- 2001 Admitted to the St. Gallen bar
- 2011 Specialist lawyer SAV (Swiss Bar Association)
employment law

Legal activities

Thomas Mayer advises clients primarily on, and represents them in court, contract and commercial law as well as in intellectual property rights issues. As a SAV (Swiss Bar Association) specialist lawyer, he regularly advises national and international clients on all employment law matters. He also advises in inheritance law. Thomas Mayer works in German and English. As a notary public, public notarisations and certifications.

Employment history

- 1997 Legal assistant in the legal department at Credit Suisse First Boston
- 1997 – 1998 Legal trainee at the District Court of Münchwilen (Thurgau)
- 1998 – 1999 Legal trainee at the Administrative Court of the Canton of Thurgau
- 1999 – 2000 Legal trainee in a St. Gallen law firm
- 2001 – 2004 Attorney-at-Law in a business law firm in Zurich
- Since 2004 Attorney-at-Law at schochauer, partner since 2010
- 2007 Three-month internship at Aitken Walker & Strachen, Melbourne, AUS

Languages

German and English

Current administrative board mandates

Raiffeisenbank am Bichelsee Genossenschaft

Chairman of the board of directors

www.raiffeisen.ch/ambichelsee